

PERISH

WITHOUT

SPIRITUAL WARFARE

David F. Winecoff
Lt. Colonel USMC-Retired

In PERISH without Spiritual Warfare, David F. Winecoff reminds you of the tools available to you now to armor yourself and your family against the spiritual challenges of today's world and teaches you to use them!

David asks: "Are you now motivated to watch? Or will you, too, miss the time of your visitation? I pray, not! It does seem so many people are about to be blindsided, ambushed. Wake up before it is too late."

Praise for PERISH without Spiritual Warfare:

"I have prayed before this short writing, because I hope that many men such as I will read this book – men who walk the path with Christ, but stray from the path too often. We see the Light, but stray. I enjoyed learning some of your military past and how it relates to the battle for our souls and our families' souls. As you make very clear, we (men) have a responsibility to our loved ones to lead them and ourselves down that ever narrowing path to Christ and, eventually, Heaven. I want your readers to know that I am a fortunate man who knows something of Col. Winecoff. If I had such a person in my life at early age, I know my path would be in a much better place. I encourage you to enjoy and be truly inspired by this book." Michael Bozo (USAF, SFOD), Hurst, TX

More praise is found on pages iii and iv of this book.
